BIO

Bella is a 17 year old Singer-Songwriter from the Delaware area. Her love for music began at a young age and initially manifested in the artistic expression of Dance. She began Dancing and would take lessons at the age of 3 and through the many years of dance her love for music has grown to reach all genres. She would then go on to take piano lessons at the age of 6 and fell in love with music. Since then she has participated in many ballets, musicals, recitals, and competitions while furthering her musical education through summer programs and intensives. This past year she has began recording, releasing and performing her own original music. Her sound combines sonic flavors from her influences of Pop, Folk, and R&B

“Music has truly become a light in my life and it will continue to be for years to come.”
